MINNEAPOLIS, Minn. - Four UW-Eau Claire women's hockey players have been selected to this year's Northern Collegiate Hockey Association All-Academic team, conference sports information director Brian Monahan announced today.

Margaret Campbell (Sr.-Plymouth, Minn./Wayzata) was honored for the second time in her career. The marketing and professional studies major with a 3.36 grade point average was named to the team last season as well. Campbell has scored five goals, including one game-winner, and also had an assist for a total of five points this year.

Beth Dittrich (Jr.-Roseville, Minn.), Kelli Johnson (So.-Farmington, Minn.) and Shannon Nelson (So.-Blaine, Minn.) were also selected to the team for their first time.

Dittrich, an elementary education major with a 3.81 GPA, is third on the team this season with 17 points, coming from eight goals and nine assists. Johnson, a nursing major with a 3.46 GPA, has a total of eight points from three goals and five assists while Nelson, a psychology major with a 3.34 GPA, has six points from three goals and three assists.

UW-Superior's Rikki Nespor earned the conference's scholar-athlete award.
